

Nobscot Sail & Power Squadron

Nobscot Dinner Meeting: November 14, 2022

Topic: TRAWLERS, ALLIGATORS AND DOLPHINS, OH MY!!

Hi Squadron Members,

The November 14th, 2022 meeting for members and guests of Nobscot Sail and Power Squadron / Metro West Boating Club will be held at Bolton Street Tavern, Marlborough, MA. Executive Officer of GBH, Jim Andersen, N will entertain us as he shares his adventures up the east coast delivering Jim and Donna's 1981 Grand Banks trawler from Panama City, Florida to it's new home in Newport, RI.

The journey would initially take them south down the west coast of Florida to Ft. Myers and then east through the Okeechobee waterway to Stuart, FL. They would finally travel north the rest of the way through America's Intracoastal Waterway.

Speaker

Biography:

Jim Andersen, is the current Executive Officer of Great Blue Hill Sail & Power Squadron.

Topic:

Jim will share his experiences delivering his "new" trawler to Newport RI with the help of his friend, Capt. Paul Bates.

Hurricane avoidance, alligators, dolphins and huge cruise ships are all part of this exciting tale at sea! So please join us for an informative evening of fellowship, good food and fun!

Dinner Choices: You can select your choice from the restaurant menu.

Dining will be in a private function room. There will be a cash bar for alcoholic beverages and soft drinks. Please bring different denominations of cash to assist our Treasurer in making change! Oh! The Commander's Club will chip in $10.00 toward your meal!

So mark your calendars for Thursday, November 14th at Bolton Street Tavern! Of course, all of D34 is welcome to join us so pass this invitation onto your squadron members!
